

Contents

Executive Summary.....	ES-1
1. Introduction.....	1-1
1.1 Background.....	1-1
1.2 Meet Point Billing Assumptions.....	1-1
1.3 Issue Statement.....	1-3
1.4 Scope.....	1-4
1.5 Document Organization.....	1-4
2. Exchange Access Interconnection Arrangements.....	2-1
2.1 The MECAB Paradigm.....	2-1
2.2 Current Problem.....	2-2
2.3 Shifting the MECAB Paradigm.....	2-2
2.3.1 New Billing Model for Exchange Access - Originating MOU.....	2-2
2.3.2 New Development for Originating MOU.....	2-4
2.3.3 New Billing Model for Exchange Access - Terminating MOU.....	2-5
2.3.4 New Development for Terminating MOU.....	2-6
2.4 Additional Considerations.....	2-6
3. Reciprocal Compensation Arrangements.....	3-1
3.1 Eliminating the MECAB Paradigm.....	3-1
3.2 Premium and Discounted MOU Rates.....	3-1
3.2.1 ILEC Owns End Office and Tandem Interconnecting with a CLEC.....	3-2
3.2.2 CLEC to CLEC Interconnection via an ILEC Tandem.....	3-2
3.2.3 CLEC to CLEC Involving Multiple Tandems.....	3-4
3.3 Additional Considerations.....	3-4
4. Unbundling and Interconnection Arrangements.....	4-1
4.1 Originating Exchange Access MOU from a UNE Line.....	4-1
4.2 Terminating Exchange Access MOU from a UNE Line.....	4-2
4.3 Reciprocal Compensation MOU and UNE Lines.....	4-3
4.4 Additional Considerations.....	4-4
5. Conclusions and Recommendations.....	5-1
5.1 Recommendation for Dispersal of this Information.....	5-2
Appendix A: Acronyms.....	A-1
Bibliography.....	Bibliography-1

List of Figures

Figure 2-1. Traditional Meet Point Arrangement.....	2-1
Figure 2-2. Standalone Billing for Originating Exchange Access MOU.....	2-4
Figure 2-3. Stand-alone Billing for Terminating Exchange Access MOU.....	2-5
Figure 3-1. Negotiated Contract - ILEC and CLEC.....	3-1
Figure 3-2. Two CLECs and a Transiting ILEC Tandem.....	3-3
Figure 3-3. Two CLECs and Two Tandem Providers.....	3-4
Figure 4-1. Originating Exchange Access MOU from a UNE Line.....	4-1
Figure 4-2. Terminating Exchange Access MOU to a UNE Line.....	4-3
Figure 4-3. Reciprocal Compensation and UNE Lines.....	4-4